Brokerage House Terms and Conditions

Dear Client,

We value your trust in Floret Commodities, and to ensure transparency in our services, we would like to outline our brokerage house terms and conditions. Please be advised that Floret Commodities explicitly does not guarantee profits to its clients, given the inherent high-risk nature of the financial markets. It is crucial for clients to understand that investing in the market involves uncertainties, and past performance is not indicative of future results. Furthermore, we want to emphasize that Floret Commodities does not engage in managing funds on behalf of clients or execute trades on their behalf. Clients are solely responsible for their investment decisions, If you are approached or offered such services by any entity claiming affiliation with our company, please promptly inform us. Floret Commodities will not be held responsible for any such unauthorized activities. Additionally, it is important to note that Floret Commodities does not accept deposits or amounts with promises of fixed returns or any such commitments. We operate in accordance with legal and regulatory standards, and any deviation from this should be reported promptly.

We appreciate your cooperation and understanding of these terms and conditions, as they are designed to protect your interests and maintain the integrity of our services. If you have any questions or require further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact your assigned representative. Or, in any case of non-compliance,

please drop an email at
